MYRTLE BEACH, SC —Photographers Without Borders is proud to make a cash donation to The In-Sight Photography Project (Brattleboro, VT) in support of its mission.

The mission of Photographers Without Borders is to provide educational and financial support to the communities of the world through the promotion and sale of fine art photography. In-Sight Photography embodies the philosophy of Photographers Without Borders by offering photography classes to area youth which enables them “to develop a visual language that will provide them tools to communicate with others while discovering something about themselves”.

Photographers Without Borders President and Founder Phil Spitze notes, “The Board of Directors and I are excited to support the outreach programs of In-Sight Photography and look forward to showcasing some of their student's work in the near future.”

Photographers Without Borders is a recognized 501(c)3 non-profit public charity who relies on public donations to continue its work. You can find more information and make donations online at: www.PhotographersWithoutBorders.org
